THAT MAN OF STRAW.

That relie of the Republic of Ha-rall. "The effect in Washington" is ngain paraded before the public in making reference to Secretary Cooper's struggle with the House of Represen-tatives. Mr. Cooper is an American citizen and as such should be allowed the same liberties in the legislative halls as any other citizen not a member or officer of the Legislature.

nothing more or less than a deserved rebuff to the foolish, childlike official pomposity of the Territorial executive. It makes no difference to this Territory whether President McKinley likes pers of the early morning, has shifted it or not. The chruces are he will per-sonally side with the action of the House, though he will hardly say so, since he must perforce not criticise, and the heads of families who are comto ask for their resignations. The Dole appointment in the first place was a slap in the face to the people of this Territory and when he tries to keep up his old time arbitrary away he must expect to receive forcible reminders that this is an American Territory and he is not the sole ruler.

If the Legislature socks to restrict Mr. Cooper's rights as a citizen, it will make trouble for itself, while it could use the assumed official capacity of Secretary Cooper as a football and lose no prestige thereby.

CONCERT AT KAWAIAHAO.

The concert by the Young People's Societys of Kawaiaho church which is to have been given last week has been postponed until Friday evening next. This arrangement will enable those who have charge of the affair to arrange a much better program than they had intended. The admission will be only fifty cents.

Among the best numbers on the program will be a Japanese song by James Hakuole, the Japanese interpreter for the courts. Ernest Kani and his man-dolin and guitar club will be present and will give a number of selections. A number of the very best of the local amateurs have consented to give num-bers. By this showing, it will be seen that the concert will be well worth attending.

Japanese Hurt in Runaway.

Three Japanese women and one man were badly injured in a runaway on the Nuuanu valley road Sunday morning. The women became frightened by the action of the horse in front of Mark Just Robinson's place and threw their open parasols into the road. The wind carried these under the horse's feet and Applived! stampeded it completely. The occupants of the wagen all jumped out, sustaining various severe injuries.

The injured folks were taken to the Queen's Hospital where examination proved that one of the women may be fatally hurt. The runaway rig very nearly collided with a back load of tourists who were going up to the pall with J. C Quinn.

Almost a Runaway.

There was almost a runaway in front of the King street entrance to the Capitol grounds this forenoon, Charles Clark of the Kalibi camp and his assistants were driving along toward the Judiciary building when the horse took fright at the large number of people just coming from the House and Sen-ate. The animal reared up and, in doing this, broke part of the harness. This frightened the animal so badly Clark made a bound from the cart in which he was seated and caught the reins near the mouth. Two or three other people ran up and the horse was taken off the cart.

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—The steamship line recently connecting Scattle, Honolulu and San Francisco, has been discontinued, or at least the small steamers which were placed on the route have been withdrawn. The prin-8.00 cipal promoter of the line is reported to have been Frank Waterhouse of Seattle, and the steamers John S. Klimball and Charles Nelson were chartered to ply between the ports named. Each made one round trip, but it was found that the expenses were far greater than the prospective revenue, and now the Kimball has gone to Oakland creek to tions in the Wilcox affair is a flat ad- lay up.
